6 DEFINITIONS

Convocation is an annual academic ceremony through which CMCC celebrates the graduation of its students by conferring degrees, diplomas or certificates to graduates of CMCC's academic programs.

A family member, for the purpose of hooding, may be a parent, sibling, spouse, grandparent, or aunt/uncle.

Graduation: A student is deemed to have graduated once having been conferred the degree or diploma for the program of study.

The Student Promotion Committee is the committee that reviews student promotion into higher years of study and determines eligibility to graduate, as per the terms of the Student Promotion policies, both for the Undergraduate and the Graduate Studies Chiropractic Residency Programs.

7 PROCEDURES

1. The Registrar will co-ordinate the planning and execution of the Convocation events.
2. A copy of the Convocation program will be maintained in accordance with the CMCC Record Management, Retention and Destruction policy.
3. A student who has not completed all graduation requirements a minimum of 14 days prior to Convocation will not be permitted to participate in the Convocation ceremony, unless the student is permitted to do so under exceptional circumstances upon recommendation of the Student Promotion Committee and/or at the discretion of the President.
4. Any appeal concerning eligibility to attend Convocation shall only be entertained in exceptional circumstances. Appeals must be made to the Registrar, in writing, on or before seven days prior to the Convocation ceremony. The Registrar will review the appeal and make a recommendation to the President, who will make the final decision regarding the student's eligibility to participate. The Registrar will then inform the student of the President's decision, in writing.

5. Students who under exceptional circumstances graduate on a date other than that of the Convocation ceremony shall be invited to participate in the subsequent Convocation ceremony.
6. In cases where a student's degree is being awarded posthumously, the student's family member or designate may be invited to receive the degree at the Convocation ceremony for the student's class.
7. In exceptional circumstances, a student who has completed all requirements for graduation may request to take the Chiropractic Oath at a time other than at the Convocation ceremony of their graduating class. These requests will be reviewed by the Registrar and a recommendation made to the President who will make a final decision.
