

The Division of Continuing Education

Waiver

Technical/Manual Instruction including authorized acts such as Spinal Manipulation/Adjustments

Spinal and Extremity Adjustment Workshop with Dr. Mohsen Kazemi Saturday, June 4, 2022

It is a required policy of the Division of Continuing Education of the CMCC, that all registrants/participants assume personal responsibility for their personal safety and welfare, while participating in courses, seminars or workshops involving technical and/or manual components of instruction including spinal manipulation/adjustments, needle acupuncture and adjunct techniques. As graduate chiropractors/chiropractic interns or other regulated health practitioners, participants are expected to appreciate the importance of the acknowledgement being provided to CMCC.

By registering for the CMCC ConED Homecoming Program, I, personally, and on behalf of my heirs, successors and assigns, agree to save harmless and indemnify CMCC, its employees, agents, and affiliates from any and all injuries, directly or indirectly incurred, whether temporary or permanent which may result from the undersigned's participation in the program. I further acknowledge and agree that I am fully responsible for my participation in the program and the extent of that participation and acknowledge that I have no knowledge of any circumstance that would prohibit me from participating in the program to the extent desired by myself.

I ACKNOWLEDGE HAVING READ, UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED to the above RELEASE, WAIVER AND INDEMNITY. I WARRANT that I am physically fit to participate in this event.
