PANELIST - DR. KYLA MEADLEY

Dr. Kyla Meadley is a chiropractor practicing in North York and Markham. She holds a Doctor of Chiropractic from the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College, and a Master of Science in Global Health. Her clinical approach is evidence-based and highly individualized, with a strong emphasis on movement, exercise, and practical lifestyle strategies to support long-term health and function. Kyla has a special interest in pregnancy, postpartum, and pediatric care, as well as concussion rehabilitation. In addition to her chiropractic practice, she is trained as a birth and postpartum doula, which has shaped her understanding of patient education, advocacy, and interdisciplinary collaboration. This perspective allows her to support families through pregnancy and early parenthood while reinforcing the role of chiropractors within perinatal care teams. She currently practices in multidisciplinary clinics and enjoys mentoring students and new graduates, with a focus on developing strong clinical reasoning, clear communication, and confidence in early practice. Outside the clinic, Kyla enjoys staying active through F45 workouts and long-distance running, and spending time outdoors with her dog, Lincoln.
