

Practice Opportunity'22 – Policies

The following policies are applicable to the Practice Opportunity '22. By agreeing to participate in the event, you acknowledge and agree that you have read, fully understand the policies set out below, and agree to same:

- 1. Restriction: Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College ("CMCC") reserves the right to restrict organizations who are in direct competition with CMCC's revenue generating divisions from participating in CMCC functions.
- 2. Policy for sponsors/exhibitors not licensed to distribute in Canada: In order to comply with section 27, of the Medical Devices Regulations (SOR/98-282) issued by the Department of Justice, and/or similar legislation, the manufacturer of a device that does not hold a license in respect of that device will not be permitted to display those items at CMCC functions or promote them to the CMCC population until a license is obtained.

- 3. Policy statement for sponsors, vendors, chiropractors, who do not meet CMCC's clinical care guidelines: CMCC reserves the right to restrict participation, in its sole discretion, as it relates to clinical care or professional practice information which might be provided by you.
- 4. Cancellation policy: All cancellations must be submitted in an email to events@cmcc.ca subject: CMCC Practice Opportunity '22 CANCELLATION REQUEST. Cancellations received on or before February 11, 2022 will be eligible for a refund of up to 50% of the fee paid. Cancellations received after February 11, 2022 will not be eligible for a refund. No refunds will be given for no-shows.
- 5. Personal information: Your personal information (name and email) may be visible to others in your profile. Additionally, all sponsors will receive a Lead Generating Report. This report shares the name and email of all those who visited their booth.
- 6. Any changes with respect to the original application are to be confirmed in writing to CMCC and subject to acceptance by CMCC.

CMCC does not necessarily endorse or approve of any of the uploaded documents, videos, or external links at each virtual booth. CMCC reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to restrict, reject, or prohibit any virtual booth in whole or in part, prior to or during the event for reasons which include but are not limited to a breach of this policy, objectionable material, inappropriate material or inappropriate representations.
