FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Toronto, December 3, 2001

Dr. Jean Moss, President of the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College (CMCC), confirmed today that the Commission on Accreditation for The Council on Chiropractic Education of Canada (CCEC) has reaccredited CMCC for the maximum period of seven (7) years.

"The Commission has been very pleased with the work that has been done over the past seven years at the College," Dr. Moss commented. "We are very satisfied with this outcome. It points not only to a stable and healthy future, but acknowledges the hard work and tremendous successes the College has enjoyed in recent years."

The CCEC came to its decision after a rigorous examination of all aspects of CMCC including a review of an extensive Self-Study conducted by CMCC, in addition to a site visitation by a team from the Commission on Accreditation. This team of experts was drawn from a broad cross-section of the profession and other chiropractic educational institutions.

About CMCC

Located in Toronto, the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College is a fully accredited, professional educational institution that has been in operation since 1945. CMCC is funded through tuition fees and private donations. Students must complete at least three years of university education before they are eligible for admission to the four-year, CMCC programme. Known around the world as a leader in chiropractic education, CMCC is committed to its proud tradition of offering excellence in education, advancing chiropractic research, and providing superior service to patients through its chiropractic teaching clinics.
